CLAIM YOUR SPACE

Residential services from YourGardener.com

What does outside space mean to you? Is it a haven for relaxing; a place for having friends over; somewhere to play with the kids; or all of these and more?

Whatever you have in mind for your outdoors, it's great when it ticks all the boxes. Your garden can be there for you when you stop work. A healthy home environment makes for relaxed, smiley families. And what's so bad about that, we say?

We love to hear what people are thinking when it comes to their greens. And it goes without saying that we like to pass on our thoughts and advice to clients.

GIVE YOUR LAWN SOME LOVE

Professional lawn care

Let's be honest... a lawn really makes a garden, however big or small it is. Lush, dark green, happy grass takes some love and patience. But that's the sign of a healthy relationship, don't you think?

Our experience allows us to advise on a lawn treatment that suits your grass and what you want from it. A managed programme of care usually involves a combination of weed control and high-quality feeds, with some aeration and thatch removal in the autumn. We use specialist fertilisers that aren't available to the domestic user and make sure nutrients are slowly released into the lawn.

You'll be able to make the most of a perfect lawn all year round – grass that's highly resistant to drought and disease, and something that's always a pleasure to look at.

WE LOVE OUR GREENS

About YourGardener.com

We love our greens at YourGardener.com. Our mothers always said they were good for us. And it's true: there's nothing we like better than getting out into the open air to work with green living things. It puts smiles on our faces.

Here's how we hope most of our customers would describe us: professional, friendly, helpful, caring, reliable and good value for money. We hope to build a genuine working relationship with our clients, and we always send the same team of uniformed gardens to your home. Why not read some customer testimonials right now?
